

erson. rector of All Saints Church, Dorchester, Mass.

The bride had as her maid of honor Miss Anne Hutton of Wellesley Hills, Mass. The bridesmaids were Miss Diana S. Marston of Cambridge, Mass., and Miss June-Tweed Shore of Charlotte, N.C.

Mr. Maynard W. Swanson of Cambridge was Mr. Marston's best man. His ushers were Mr. Howard A. Fisher of New York City, Mr. David M. Hadlow Jr. of West Hartford, Mr. Frank H. Magee Jr., of Abington, Pa., and Mr. Donald Pelham of Avon.

The bride's gown of white Swiss organdy over blush taffeta was fashioned with a circlet neckline and short sleeves highlighted with an insert of soft pleats and lace. A princess paneled bodice topped a bell-shaped skirt, accented at the hemline with pleating, which extended into a court train. Her French illusion fingertip veil was held in place by a pleated organdy cap.

The bridesmaids wore dresses of deep pink cotton, styled with solid bodices and bouffant striped skirts of pink and white. Their headbands were of white eyelet with pink streamers, and they carried rubrum lilies.

Mrs. Marston was graduated from Hathaway Brown School, Shaker Heights, Ohio, and from Wellesley College with the class of 1959. The bridegroom was graduated from Park School, Indianapolis; Amherst College, class of 1952, and the Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration. Mr. and Mrs. Marston will make their home in West Hartford.
