MRS. JOHN W. KRIEGER
nee Elizabeth B. Dean

nuptial music was provided by Mr. John Alves.

The bride's gown of white taffeta was styled with a round neckline of Alencon lace, long pointed sleeves and a bouffant skirt trimmed with lace appliques extending into a chapel train. A cap of lace and pearls held her fingertip-length veil of English illusion, and she carried a semi-cascade of lilies of the valley, white roses and glamelias.

Miss Nancy Dean was her sister's maid of honor, and Miss Jean Cattanack, Miss Priscilla Maule and Miss Marsha Samoylenko, all of Farmington Ave., West Hartford, were the bridesmaids. They wore similar gowns of emerald green velvet and matching feather headbands. They carried semi-cascade bouquets of yellow glamelias and boxwood, the honor attendant's bouquet accented with white pompons.

Mr. John N. Shaw of Avon was the best man, and Mr. Douglas L. Morton, Mr. John M. Pardy, Mr. Donald Pelham and Mr. Terry K. Woodbury, all of Avon, ushered the wedding guests.

The bride selected a gray silk costume with black patent leather accessories when the couple left for a wedding trip to Nassau.
